Day 1

“Chemical Hazard Identification and the Hanford Tanks” Joel Eacker, CH2MHill Hanford Group, Inc.

Training: “Identification of Chemical Hazards for Security Risk Analysis of Activities”
Cal Jaeger, Sandia National Labs

“Recommendations for Addressing Recurring Chemical Incidents at DOE: CSTC Project 2004-B” James Morgan, WSRC

OSHA’s HAZCOMM Initiatives Maureen O’Donnell, OSHA

“Beryllium Hazard Identification Challenges at Westinghouse Savannah River Site”
Steve Jahn, WSRC/SRC

“New Beryllium Work - The LLNL Experience in Expanding the Scope of the Chronic Beryllium Disease Prevention Program” George Fulton, UC/LLNL

Training: Reducing Vulnerability to Chemical Facility Threats by Training Workers: Effective Models from the NIEHS Hazardous Waste Worker Community Chip Hughes, NIEHS/NIH/HHS

.....

Day 2

“Tools Available to Identify Chemical Reactivity and Other Process Safety Hazards”
Scott Berger, CCPS

“How Can Reactive Chemical Incidents Be Prevented?” Dennis Hendershot, Rohm and Haas Company

“Hazard Identification in Undefined Environments” David Blair, Focus Environmental Management Group, David Quigley, BWXT Y-12

“Lessons from Grangemouth: Hazard Identification in a Chemical Process Setting -- Correlation Among 3 Incidents” Mike Broadribb, Sr. Technical Advisor, BP Amoco

“Reactive Chemicals and Hazard Identification Issues” Fred Simmons, WSRC

“Importance of Chemical Reactivity Identification, Management and Control: U.S. Chemical Safety Board Reports and Experiences” Carolyn Merritt, Chair and CEO, US CSB

.....
Day 3

CSTC Project 2004-A: “Revisions to the DOE Chemical Management Handbook: Volume 3, Chemical User Safety and Health Requirements” David Quigley, BWXT, Y-12 [Chair]

CSTC Project 2004-D: “Methods for Addressing the Hazards of Time Sensitive Chemicals” Helena Whyte, LANL [Chair]

CSTC Project 2004-E: “Chemical Exposures During Closure Activities” Geoff Gorsuch, Miamisburg Closure Project [Chair]

CSTC Project 2004-C: “Perspectives on Chemical Hazard Characterization Practices” J.C. Laul, LANL [Chair]

The Safety Basis Academy – Project Overview and Status” Roland Gille, LANL
